What are the lecturer's strengths?

Comments
covering the day's portion in shorter time but completing it.
Concise teaching
He is friendly with us and easy to get the points
He had forgotten to turn up for one of our lessons and changes the time of lesson via MS team instead of email.
clear explanations
nil
good teaching examples, good pacing, not overloading
He is really strong in the subject and makes good interaction with us that makes us more eager to listen to his lectures and learn from him.
Lecturer will give examples when he is going through the topic. He will also answer questions that were asked in class or during the lab sessions.
Presentation
The teacher has a great teaching method and good communication. In addition, he is very dedicated and kind.
Has fun with the material. Allows us to pay more attention
Lesson is fun and creative
Overall excellent lecturer in all aspects
Informative and early for classes. well prepared.
Used his personal experiences to be more relatable to his students.

What improvements would you suggest to the lecturer?

Comments
sometimes I don't understand only a few words of which he speaks because in my view he speaks a bit fast.
Use a lesser amount of videos for teaching purposes
Let him be the same and friendly with us

What I like about the module

Comments
I like both the subjects of biology and chemistry.
Teaches important biochemistry fundamentals
It is useful and relevant to course
useful for future application in Singapore healthcare good lab lessons to learn more
It refreshed lots of topics as I came back into studying after 2yrs of National service and I learnt some new concepts too.
Learn new things during lab sessions.
Nil
I am an extremely loving Chemistry person. And biochemistry is a clear upgrade of the world inside the cells. It gives me much helpful information about the body and other living things in nature.
I was educated on the latest in Informatics and Technology in Healthcare Management some interesting articles.
It is very relevant since the times are improving with technology, and it is most useful in the healthcare industry.
